

Barefoot Party

EVENT TYPES

Hosted by:

Books & Cooks- Read a book and whip up a snack! This event type allows for the children to have a hands-on experience that exceeds the normal craft. Children will explore a book through a read aloud and then make a tasty treat inspired by the book. This event costs $10 per child. We come to you, so the venue must have a kitchen that accommodates all of the guests.

Paint a Story- This read aloud puts the right side of your child's brain to work. After a read aloud, children will create a painting inspired by the book. You choose if you want blank canvases for the children to create original pieces or if you would like a pre-drawn outline of a picture for the children to paint. This costs $20 per child. Make sure the venue is friendly to children armed with paint.

Art & Story- This read aloud gives your child a hands-on experience to accompany the story. After the book is read, children will be invited to participate in a craft inspired by the book. Options for the crafts depends on the theme chosen and can range from a cost of free to $20.

Storytime- This read aloud is an interactive 30 minute session that provides opportunities for your child to work on vocabulary and reading comprehension through song, dance, and story. This event is free. We come to you, so the event host must choose a location that has adequate space to accommodate the amount of guests.

Sip & Flip- This simple coffee shop stop event gives adults time to learn about children's literacy, Kathryn's Book Nook, and Barefoot Books. In just 30-45 minutes, adults can take a quick break or they can bring the kids along. Books and a simple activity will be provided for the children who are present during the event. This event is free. We are able to meet at the coffee shop of your choosing.

Girls' Night- Sometimes, a guilt-free break is exactly what the doctor ordered. Get your girls together for a fun night of laughs and literacy and leave the kids at home. This event is free and we are able to meet at a venue of your choosing.

Virtual Yending- Party in your pajamas with our 30 minute Facebook Party. Relax in the comfort of your home or while you are on the go. Your friends and family from across the US & Canada can join in on the fun. This event is free and can occur whenever you like except Friday nights & Saturday mornings.
